MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 17.

LUXURIOUS SOCIALISM .- If the socialistic doctrine is capable of intelligent definition it is that what the richest enjoy of the good things of this life everybody shall enjoy. But even in socialist circles the curse of inequality has not yet been banished. Dr. Aveling and his wife, the famous English apostles of socialism, who have spent three months in trying to convert the American people to the doctrine of social equality, have just been hauled over the coals for extravagance by the socialist-labor party of New York, under whose auspices they had undertaken their lecture tour. The distinguished lecturers rendered a bill of $1,900 for expenses incurred during the lecture tour. The national executive committee to The national executive committee, to whom the bill was referred, were decidedly of the opinion that the bill was extravagant of the opinion that the bill was extravagant of the opinion that the bill was extravagan; and in auditing it reduced it to $1,500, claiming that even at that figure it was too high. The friends of the Avelings appealed to a general meeting of the party held last week. Socialistic political and business meetings appear to be usually held on Snn-day. The report of the committee was sustained by an overwhelming majority, the rank and file of the party protesting that the cause of socialism was not promoted by the cause of socialism was not promoted by the fifty dollars spent for cigars by Dr. Aveling or by the smaller amount charged to cigarettes for his wife which appeared in the bill. Neither did they think that the $100 worth of theater tickets or a wine and board bill of $42, or $25 spent for corsage bouquets were absolutely essential to the promulgation of the gospel of equality. One socialist woman in the meeting had the temerity to ask, "What have corsage bouquets to do with socialism? Why, I have lived for an entire month on that amount." lived for an entire month on that amount."
The truth seemed to dawn upon the more intelligent of the socialists that Dr. Aveling and his cigarette smoking wife were about as selfish as the average of property-holders. They were willing to preach the gospel of social equality, but they wanted somebody else to practice it.—Phila. Times. ## Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day it every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is pub lished regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edi tion-nearly as large as the daily--is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent.
